Last Meeting: Communications in Agriculture

Dickinson State University Agriculture/Communication students Inga Larson, Shauna McNaughton, and Heidi Hintz spoke to us about what brought them to Dickinson State and how they plan to use Agriculture and Communication studies when they graduate. They all want to be a “voice” for agriculture. They feel that we need to educate the public about how agriculture affects most aspects of their lives. While Heidi Hintz was the State Dairy Princess she came to realize how little the general public knows.

Welcome, New Member!

John Odermann, sponsored by Brad Fong, received his membership packet. John grew up north of Belfield and graduated from Trinity High School. He is also a Concordia (Moorhead, MN) grad. He came back to Dickinson where he now serves as the Director of Advancement for the Catholic schools and also serves as their head football coach. John mentioned that if you see him around town and he acts like he doesn't know who you are, he is probably his identical twin Jacob.

Paul Harris Recognition

Clyde Frank presented the following members with new Paul Harris awards:

Brad Fong +4, David Anderson +1, Mark Emmerich +1, Ken Kussy +2, Mary

Massad +1, and Kari Shea +3. Clyde reported that Dickinson is second only to Duluth in our district, in dollars given by the club to the Rotary Foundation.
