

BRANDING IRON

Volume LX, Number 43, June 4, 2014

Ben Shroyer-Biesiot Activities Center

The end of June marks the fourth year of the BAC being open and the fifth year of it holding events. Shroyer noted they have been "extremely busy" since opening and an event center that was projected to only host 40 events a year now hosts something almost everyday, whether it be indoor or outdoor.

Last Meeting : Ben Shroyer - Director of Operations for the Henry Biesiot Activities Center

The BAC has held weddings, conferences, meetings, and is actually the home site for a local church on Sundays.

Upcoming special events at the BAC include:

- June 6th - Roast and Toast in celebration of long-time DSU Head Football coach Henry Biesiot
- June 7th - Blues and Brews
- June 10th - Voting
- June 21st - Annual North Dakota/Montana Badlands Bowl

Shroyer was asked about cash flow and he was proud to say that the BAC has been operating in the black and is putting money away each year to help pay for a replacement turf football field. The lifespan in the current field is 10-15 years and is on its fifth year.
